Climb the Myles Standish Monument!

Saturdays & Sundays in September,
10:00am—5:00pm

Climb the 125-step granite monument overlooking Plymouth Harbor. At the top, enjoy a panoramic view of Southeastern Massachusetts, from the Blue Hills to Cape Cod on clear days. Closer by, you will have a bird's eye view of Plymouth Harbor, Saquish and Clark's Island. A Park Interpreter is on site to share inspiring stories about Captain Myles Standish and the history of this impressive 116-foot monument.

All children must be accompanied by an adult. Rain, extreme heat, thunderstorms or strong winds will close the monument.
